Day 2: Sunday 11 Oct 2009 – Day at your leisure to enjoy the sites of Athens.

Day 3: Monday, 12 Oct 2009 – Morning Departure for Classical Tour

Sightseeing: 4-Day Classical Tour with Meteora on a private coach with driver and guide.

Drive along the coastal road by the Saronic Gulf to the Corinth Canal, which connects the Aegean Sea with the Ionian Sea. Short stop to walk the canal and take photos. Thus, we pass across to Peloponnese and we continue our drive to Epidaurus in order to visit the sanctuary of Asklepios, as well as the Theatre of Epidaurus, worldwide known for its remarkable acoustics. We proceed our tour with a short stop to the picturesque seaside town of Nafplion, which was the first capital of modern Greece. We continue our drive to Mycenae, the legendary home city of the Atreides. Visit the Lions Gate, the Cyclopean Walls, and King s Agamemnon Tomb. Driving through central Peloponnese and the towns of Tripolis and Megalopolis, we arrive at Olympia, the birthplace of the Olympic Games. Dinner and Overnight.

Hotel: Check in at Hotel Europa, for 1 night
10 Double Rooms for 1 night on Bed & Breakfast basis.

The Best Western Hotel Europa is built on the top of Drouvas Hill in Ancient Olympia, at the foot of which there is the Sacred Alti with brilliant monuments and the stadium of the Ancient Olympic Games. The silent, humble hill whose top our hotel decorates, has been a long-standing witness and a privileged spectator of the events that took place in this divine valley, that spreads out so beautiful and idyllic between two rivers, Alfeios and Kladeos.

Day 4: Tuesday 13 Oct 2009

Breakfast. In the morning, we will visit the Archaeological Site with the Sanctuary of Olympius Zeus, the Ancient Stadium and the museum. After this morning visit, we depart for Delphi. On our way we will cross the channel of Rio Antirion via the longest and most modern, suspended bridge in Europe, which connects the Peloponnese with Central Greece. Passing through the towns of Nafpaktos and Itea we will arrive at Delphi. Rest of the afternoon, free at leisure. Dinner and overnight.
